

We are reopening!

Although things are slightly different here now, the welcome is as warm as ever! We look forward to welcoming you back to Yr Ysgwrn very soon.

Open on Friday and Saturday

New precautions...

- ◆ There will be two tours each day, one at 11am and the other at 2pm.
- ◆ We kindly ask you to book in advance, either by contacting Yr Ysgwrn, or through Eventbrite.
- ◆ Each tour is limited to one bubble / extended household, with a maximum of 10 people on every tour. This enables us to ensure social distancing can be maintained, and offers you an unique and personal visit to Yr Ysgwrn.
- ◆ As you arrive we'll be taking your contact details for the track and trace system.
- ◆ Please keep to the social distancing regulations, 2 meters here in Wales, at all times during your visit.
- ◆ A one way system will be in place, with multiple hand washing stations placed across the site.
- ◆ To ensure the wellbeing of visitors and staff, we kindly ask visitors to wear a mask.
- ◆ The site will be cleaned thoroughly before and after each tour, but we ask you not to touch the artefacts and furniture in the house, or the display boards in the reception area and the gallery, to reduce the risk of catching and spreading the virus.

*If you have any symptoms of coronavirus, or if you've been in contact with anyone who has the virus in the last 14 days, we ask that you don't visit the site.

To book your place contact Yr Ysgwrn or visit Eventbrite

01766 772508 / yr.ysgwrn@eryri.llyw.cymru

A warm welcome to all!